Dear Colonel Heimach:

Thank you for inviting Director Casey to the American Astronautical Society Honors Banquet to be held on Thursday June 21st.

Mr. Casey has asked me to extend his regrets. Due to a prior commitment, he is unable to accept your kind invitation to attend the dinner. He does however, wish your meeting and members all success.

Sincerely,

George V. Lauder

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

The American Astronautical Society will hold an Honors Banquet on the evening of Thursday, 21 June at The Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C., in conjunction with the Society's third annual classified Military Space Symposium to be held on 21-22 June at the State Department.

At the banquet, the AAS will honor Norman Augustine, President, Martin Marietta Aerospace, with the award of its Military Astronautics Trophy for 1984. The trophy is awarded annually for outstanding leadership in the advancement of space systems for national defense. The AAS will also present awards to secondary school students whose projects were judged best at the 29th Annual Fairfax County and Montgomery County Regional Science and Engineering Fairs.

We are pleased to invite you and your spouse or guest to this event, compliments of the American Astronautical Society. All activities are organized in accordance with the appropriate DOD and other government agency directives.

The banquet will begin with a reception at 7:00 p.m. followed by dinner and dancing in the Palladian Room of the Shoreham Hotel at 2500 Calvert Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Dress will be black tie or summer mess. Your response should be postmarked no later than 1 June 1984. In the event of a "sell out," responses will be accepted on the basis of the postmarks of the RSVPs. Tickets will be mailed prior to the event.

We hope you can join us for a festive evening in honor of Norman Augustine.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Heimach, Colonel, USAF
Symposium Chairman
